

Datamaxx History

- 1991 Datamaxx Applied Technologies, Inc., formed as a Florida-certified, woman-owned business
- 1995 First company to transmit images between state law enforcement agencies
- 1999 Deployed first wireless handheld application to New York City Police Department
- 2001 Implemented first Law Enforcement Communications Cloud to support satellite communications for law enforcement agencies
- 2001 Moved to 32,500 sq/ft advanced state-of-the-art facility including Secured Network Operations Center, home to the Datamaxx Secure Cloud™
- 2003 Datamaxx Secure Cloud becomes first CJIS-compliant cloud
- 2003 Signed first-of-its kind Strategic Partner Agreement with International Justice and Public Safety System (Nlets)
- 2003 New York City Police Department awards contract for enterprise mobile fleet, Omnixx Force® mobility suite
- 2003 U.S. Department of Homeland Security awards multi-year contract for Tactical Information Sharing solution in the Datamaxx Secure Cloud
- 2004 Texas Department of Public Safety awards statewide CJIS contract, 60,000+ users, for Omnixx Enterprise® Edition
- 2006 First and only private entity to successfully complete FBI CJIS Technical Security Audit for Datamaxx Secure Cloud
- 2008 Datamaxx awarded contracts with Judiciary of Guam, Montana Department of Justice and Iowa Judicial Branch
- 2008 U.S. Department of State selects Datamaxx Secure Cloud to supply CJIS data worldwide
- 2009 U.S. Office of Personnel Management Nationwide CJIS access via Datamaxx Secure Cloud
- 2009 New York City Police Department awards contract to Datamaxx for replacement of its message switch with Omnixx Enterprise Platform
- 2010 Washington State Police award Datamaxx statewide contract for Omnixx Enterprise Message Switch and Omnixx CJIS workstations
- 2012 Datamaxx deploys new Android-based e-citation application, IntelliTICKET™, in Puerto Rico
- 2013 Nebraska State Patrol deploys Omnixx Enterprise Platform for state message switch and Omnixx CJIS workstations statewide